PENTECOST SUNDAY - SOLEMNITY

The readings today on this, the feast of the birth of our Church, give us powerful images: a strong, driving wind; tongues as of fire; the ability of the disciples to speak to people in their own languages. This is a good day to celebrate the power of the Holy Spirit, transforming a group of fear-filled disciples into bold preachers. Pentecost Sunday is a great day to rejoice in the power of the Lord!

Pentecost is also a great day to challenge ourselves. In the past several weeks, we have commemorated the passion and death of Jesus and celebrated his Resurrection, his appearances in a glorified body to the disciples, his ascension into heaven, and now his sending of the Holy Spirit in great power. The key question is, what do we do with this now, in our own time and place?

We know that there are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord ... [and] to each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. And all of these have one thing in common: they are to be used to build up the Body, the Church – and in turn to fulfill the Church’s mission. That mission is the proclamation of Jesus as Lord and of the love that God has for each of us, shown to us through Jesus.

By faith and through the power of the Holy Spirit, we all have the basic gift that Paul mentions up front in his letter: The realization and the ability to say that Jesus is Lord. This is the foundation of being a Christian. Grace and discernment help us own the gifts we have been given and make an effort to use them for God’s glory and the sake of the kingdom.

The gifts can be as simple as a kind heart that is ready to listen to others who are suffering, or a practical nature that can help in planning efforts to reach out. Today, let us ask the Holy Spirit to reveal the gifts he has given to us – and show us how we can use these gifts for the good of others.

Our Saint of the Week      Saint Joan of Arc, 1412-1431

The church officially remembers Joan of Arc not as a martyr but as a virgin—the Maid of Orleans. Of course, Joan was a martyr, but not in the technical sense. Yes, she died because she did what she thought God wanted her to do. But she was killed for her politics, not for her faith. Pagans did not execute her for refusing to worship their gods. Infidels did not slay her for defying them. Political enemies burned her at the stake for defeating them at war.

Paradoxically, Christian people, good and bad alike, cheered at her demise. Other Christians wept. This incongruity may trouble us, but Joan would have expected it. The war she fought embroiled French Christians against English Christians. We too have waged wars like that, pitting Christian against Christian. Just as we may have felt that God was on our side, Joan believed that God was with the French. When the judges who condemned her asked if the heavenly voices she followed to war spoke in English, she replied tartly, “Why should they speak English when they were not on the English side?” Joan of Arc was born into the violent times of the fifteenth century.

Stewardship: A Way of Life

(April 2023 Report)

$ 23,170.43 Sunday Collections (4/2, 9, 16, 23, 30)
$ 7,429.00 Online Sunday Collections (4/1-30)
$ 4,493.00 Donworth Hall APRIL Rental Income

$ 35,092.43 Total Income for April 2023

LESS:

$ 52,148.67 Parish Maintenance for April
$ 17,056.24 Over / UNDER

Please note that we were able to cover the negative income of $17,056.24 this month from the remaining balance of Parish Dinner's Windfall Income (Taste of Spain) of $16,482.27 and from our Ester Collection of 6,108.00 bringing the Easer balance down to $5,54.03.
Please continue to generously support your Parish !

Just a reminder that our monthly maintenance costs DO NOT include the significant deferred maintenance that needs to be performed at the parish and rectory. Things like 1) the leaky roof in the church, 2) a broken water pipe underneath the rectory that was flooding the rectory garage with sewage that needed to be fixed, and 3) a 25 year old water heater that finally stopped working and needed to be replaced. Also NOT included in this parish maintenance monthly amount is the yearly payment of $66,000 that the parish must make on the Gym/Hall debt.

With this in mind, in the fall we will be starting to learn about being a Stewardship Parish, where we live out our discipleship of Jesus Christ as good stewards of the gifts we have been given, which includes our financial gifts. If you are interested in taking a leadership role with this initiative, please email Fr. Michael.

St Stephen's Book Club

June Book: Imagine Heaven: Near-death Experiences, God's Promises, and the Exhilarating Future That Awaits You by John Burke.

We will meet in person on Saturday, June 10 @ 10:00 a.m. in the parish office conference room.

about Imagine Heaven:

All of us long to know what life after death will be like. Bestselling author John Burke is no exception. In Imagine Heaven, Burke compares over 100 gripping stories of near-death experiences (NDEs) to what Scripture says about our biggest questions of Heaven: Will I be myself? Will I see friends and loved ones? What will Heaven look like? What is God like? What will we do forever? What about children and pets?

For decades, Burke has been studying accounts of survivors brought back from near death who lived to tell of both heavenly and hellish experiences. While not every detail of individual NDEs correlate with Scripture, Burke shows how the common experiences shared by thousands of survivors--including doctors, college professors, bank presidents, people of all ages and cultures, and even blind people--point to the exhilarating picture of Heaven promised in the Bible.

This thrilling journey into the afterlife will make you feel like you've been there. It will forever change the way you view the life to come and the way you live your life today. You'll discover Heaven is even more amazing than you've ever imagined.

Song Lyrics for 9:30 am Mass

Gathering: Here I Am to Worship

Light of the world you stepped down into darkness
Opened my eyes, let me see
Beauty that made this heart adore you
Hope of a life spent with you
Here I am to worship, here I am to bow down
Here I am to say that you're my God
You're altogether lovely, altogether worthy Altogether wonderful to me

King of all days, oh so highly exalted
Glorious in heaven above
Humbly you came to the earth you created
All for love's sake became poor

Here I am to worship, here I am to bow down
Here I am to say that you're my God
You're altogether lovely, altogether worthy
Altogether wonderful to me

And I'd never know how much it cost
To see my sin upon that cross
And I'll never know how much it cost
To see my sin upon that cross

Here I am to worship, here I am to bow down
Here I am to say that you're my God
You're altogether lovely, altogether worthy
Altogether wonderful to me

See his body, his blood
Know that he has overcome
Every trial that we will face
And none too lost to be saved
None too broken or ashamed
All are welcome in this place

By your mercy we come to your table
By your grace you are making us faithful

Lord, we remember you
And remembrance leads us to worship
And as we worship you
Our worship leads to Communion
We respond to your invitation
We remember you

Dying you destroyed our death Rising you restored our life Lord Jesus come in glory
Lord Jesus come in glory Lord
Jesus come in glory Lord Jesus
come in glory

Lord, we remember you
And remembrance leads us to worship
And as we worship you
Our worship leads to Communion
We respond to your invitation
We respond to your invitation
We remember you

Preparation of the Gifts: The Summons

#387 in Breaking Bread pew hymnal

Communion: Remembrance

Oh, how could it be
That my God would welcome me
Into this mystery
Say, "Take this bread, take this wine"
Now the simple made divine
For any to receive

By your mercy we come to your table
By your grace you are making us faithful

Lord, we remember you
And remembrance leads us to worship And as we worship you
Our worship leads to Communion We respond to your invitation
We remember you

Sending: Immaculate Mary

Immaculate Mary, your praises we sing
You reign now in heaven with Jesus our King
Ave, Ave, Ave Maria...Ave, Ave Maria

In heaven the blessed your glory proclaim
On earth we your children invoke your fair name
Ave, Ave, Ave Maria...Ave, Ave Maria

We pray for our Mother the Church upon earth
And bless, Holy Mary the land of our birth Ave,
Ave, Ave Maria...Ave, Ave Maria
