December 28, 2025

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

We have arrived at the time of year when we now say Merry Christmas and enter the Christmas season! Father Liliedahl, the office staff, I thank you for all your Christmas greetings and treats we have received. Lent is about a month and a half away, but I am confident we will all be able to finish things off before then.

As always, I am filled with gratitude for all of our parishioners who made our Christmas celebrations such a blessing. This includes John Michael Reyes and Andrew Roubal, who directed our music program and the choir at the various Masses on Christmas Eve/Day; Annibal, Mary Molly, and Shay in the office who worked on all types of behind the scene preparations, our office volunteers who were Father's Little Helpers getting our mailing and other Christmas tasks, members of the Liturgy Committee who helped to decorate the church, our sacristans who prepared for our Masses, our altar servers who served, and many others who contributed in ways large and small. Thank you as well to Nellie Hizon and the members of our Filipino-American community who oversaw our Simbang Gabi celebration this year in preparation for Christmas. We are all grateful to the benefactors of our parish who also donated in various ways to fund the decorations to make our church so beautiful for Christmas.

This coming week, Father Liliedahl will be attending the SEEK Conference in Denver with the FOCUS Campus Missionaries and some college students in the campus ministry program. It is a multi-day event that brings together primarily Catholics, but also some non-Catholics, to worship and grow in their faith and fellowship with one another. This conference is always an important moment for those who attend to grow in knowledge of God's love for them and we pray for them during their trip.

As we end the end of 2025, I want to thank everyone as we have celebrated our parish's 75th anniversary this past year. As you know, we have been praying our 75th anniversary prayer at the conclusion of Mass. We began to pray the prayer when we celebrated the Baptism of the Lord (which marks the end of the Christmas season) and so we will conclude the prayer on that day as well (Jan. 11) as we conclude this custom. It will also give us some time to update the anniversary fund's final numbers for the year.

Speaking of the new year, January 1 is the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God and a Holy Day of obligation this year. We will have a single Mass at 9:30 AM that day and a guest priest, Father Emmanuel Adams who has visited us in the past. May our Blessed Mother's prayers accompany us all in the new year.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph Background on the Gospel Reading

Today we celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. As we do so, our Gospel invites us to consider Joseph's protection of Jesus in the face of danger. Just as in the announcement of Jesus' birth, an angel appears to Joseph in a dream. The angel warns him of Herod's plans to harm Jesus. Joseph follows the command of the angel and takes Joseph and Mary to Egypt, returning only after receiving word in another dream that it was safe to do so.

This feast is part of the Christmas season, so we should look at today's Gospel in the context of what Scripture tells us about Jesus' birth. Today's reading is found in the Gospel of Matthew, following the story of the visit of the Magi. Recall that Matthew's story about the birth of Jesus makes Joseph the primary character. Among Matthew's themes in this infancy narrative is Jesus as the fulfillment of the Old Testament prophecies about the messiah. Indeed, the story of the Holy Family's flight to Egypt recalls the story of Moses in the Book of Exodus.

It should also be noted that today's reading omits the verses that recount Herod's order of the massacre of the infant boys in and around Bethlehem. We mark this event on the Feast of the Holy Innocents on December 28.

These events remind us of the difficult reality of Jesus' birth. While the story of the Magi's visit will be recalled in our liturgy on the Feast of the Epiphany, our Christmas celebration is made more sober by the recollection that not everyone received Christ's birth with joy or obedience. Herod's jealousy and malice contrast with Joseph's obedience to the words of the angel. The Holy Family's escape to Egypt and the massacre that Jesus is saved from remind us of the struggles and sacrifices that are required as preparation for God's salvation.

Saint Stephen 75th Anniversary Prayer

Heavenly Father, we give thanks for 75 years of faith, love, and service at Saint Stephen Parish.

Bless all those who came before us who built this community through their faith, devotion, and sacrifice.

May Saint Stephen continue to be a place where your people gather to celebrate the Eucharist, encounter your love, and be given the grace to be true missionary disciples, bringing your love to the world.

We ask all this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
